AMEND Senate Bill No. 308*

House Bill No. 866

by adding the following as a new subdivision at the end of SECTION 1:

(iii) An urban park center licensed under this subdivision (38)(M) may also apply for a special occasion license, as defined in § 57-4-102(32), for the sale and service of alcoholic beverages at the premises licensed hereunder or off-premises. At the special occasion event, the license holder may receive donated or discounted products, to be used for sale or complimentary service to patrons and guests by the licensee; provided, that all the products shall be donated from a wholesaler's private stock, or donated by a supplier and distributed through a wholesaler at zero invoice. All donated or discounted products shall be segregated from the licensee's regular stock and may be used only at an event licensed as a special occasion event;
